Brief Description of Interview:

An interview was conducted on the above-identified application on September 10, 2003 with the above-listed participants. The issue of whether a negative limitation added to the claims by amendment is supported by the specification and whether the requirements of written description are met by this amendment was discussed, along with sections of the MPEP and Ex parte Grasselli and Ex Parte Parks. Examiner Benzion stated that he would discuss this case with Rob Hill (new matter expert) and/or Brian Stanton (Quality Matrix Group) and have Examiner Tung get back to applicants' representative with their comments. Applicants' representative requested that if the outcome of such consultation is maintenance of the new matter rejection, that applicants be provided a written explanation of why the rejection is maintained and why one of skill in the art would not reasonably conclude, upon review of the specification, that applicants were in possession of the invention as now claimed, in order to prepare the case for possible appeal.
